Come and learn more about long-term care:

- What is long-term care?
- Health insurance doesn't cover it.
- The CalPERS Long-Term Care Program offers more choices than ever before in 2003.

All California public employees, retirees, their spouses, parents, parents-in-law and siblings (age 18 and over) are eligible to apply before the close of this application period, June 30, 2003.
